

LEGAL BASICS for a successful art practice

Instructor: Jake Janzen

Start Art Legal

A Business and Legal Basics workshop designed for artists, that seek to dispel some myths about the legal and business concepts related to successful art practices, and to help artists know their legal rights.

“LEGAL BASICS for a successful art practice” gives Artists a clear understanding of the nuts and bolts of Federal Copyright and Trademark law, their Federal VARA rights and their State CAPA rights. It also covers tax basics for Artists, and the pros and cons of the many types of business entities available to them. The workshop also details the issues and pitfalls that Artists should be aware of when entering into contracts for gallery shows, commissions and art sales.

Jake Janzen owns Start Art Legal, a law practice dedicated to the Arts. He is a member of the California Lawyers for the Arts Modest Means Incubator Program. Jake provides affordable, discounted, and pro-bono legal aid for artists, galleries, and creative entrepreneurs throughout California. As part of his role at California Lawyers for the Arts, he teaches educational workshops for artists, art lawyers, and art business owners.

www.startartlegal.com

When: Saturday, October 21
1 – 3 pm

Where: Marin Museum of Contemporary Art
781 Hamilton Parkway (building behind Beso Café)

Registration fees: Members $50; Non-members $60

Register online at www.marinmoca.org.

Registration forms are also available in the MarinMOCA lobby, 500 Palm Drive, or in the classroom building, 781 Hamilton Parkway.

For additional information please contact the MarinMOCA office at 415.506.0137, Wednesday - Friday, 11am to 4pm or Saturday - Sunday 11am to 5pm.

Visa and MasterCard welcome.