

The Portrait & the Figure: Stretching Your Vision

Instructor: Kathleen Lack

Develop your own style of painting the figure! If you are interested in painting portraits or figures, working from 'life' is essential. The nuances of light, reflections and shadows on the form are defining and inspirational. You will receive individualized instruction in composition, color, proportions and the use of your medium of choice.

Under the tutelage of Kathleen Lack, award winning artist and teacher, learn to capture the emotional spontaneity and beauty of the human form. Whether you are a beginner or experienced artist, Kathleen will bring out the best of your talents. Beginners and advanced students are welcome.
